

Camps for Children

This list provided is for your convenience and is not an exhaustive list. Cook Children's Health Care System doesn't recommend or endorse any specific program. These instructions are only general guidelines. Your healthcare provider may give you special instructions.

North Texas

Name	Contact	About
H.E.R.O.E.S. 	101 S. Coit Road Richardson, TX, 75080 469-750-0022 info@heroesdfw.org https://heroesdfw.org/	Day Programs run for six weeks during the summer, four to five days during the winter and three days during Spring Break. Students experience various therapies, social skills training, team building activities, vocational training and facilitation of their independence, all while building friendships. Serve individuals of all abilities from ages three to adulthood.
Camp Summit 	17210 Campbell Road Suite 180 Dallas, TX, 75252 972-484-8900 camp@campsummittx.org https://www.campsummittx.org/	Providing outdoor recreation opportunities for campers and respite opportunities for parents and caregivers all year long. The vast majority of camp sessions are weeklong, residential (overnight) sessions. Offering two weekend-overnight camps per year and several one-day programs, giving families the opportunity to experience Camp Summit in a variety of different ways.
Camp John Marc 	4925 Greenville Ave., Suite 400 Dallas, TX, 75206 214-360-0056 mail@campjohnmarc.org https://www.campjohnmarc.org/	High-quality camping programs for children, teens and families. Year-round programming and specialized camp facilities are uniquely designed in partnership with Dallas-Fort Worth area pediatric hospitals, community volunteers and health organizations who are dedicated to serving campers living with chronic medical and physical challenges.

Central Texas

Name	Contact	About
Morgan's Camp 	23400 Cibolo Vista San Antonio, TX, 78261 210-866-4200 https://morganscamp.org/	Morgan's Camp is an Ultra-Accessible™ camp for everyone with a particular emphasis on giving people with physical and developmental disabilities an opportunity to enjoy summer-camp-type activities alongside guests without special needs.
CAMP: Children's Association for Maximum Potential	515 Skyline Drive Center Point, TX, 78010 210-671-5411	Year-round, CAMP provides recreational opportunities for individuals with medical conditions or disabilities as well as their siblings, respite for family members, leadership

	campmail@campcamp.org https://campcamp.org/	development for high-school students/young adults and hands-on educational experiences for healthcare professionals.
Texas Elks Camp 	1963 FM 1586 Gonzales, TX, 78629 830-875-2425 txelks@gvec.net https://www.texaselkscamp.com/	Provides children with special needs and children in foster care an opportunity to try new things, meet new friends and make memories that will last a lifetime. Any child with special needs or in foster care age 7-21, who is a resident of Texas is eligible for admission to the Texas Elks Camp.
Texas Lions Camp 	4100 San Antonio Hwy Kerrville, TX, 78028 1-830-896-8500 1-830-896-3666 tlc@lionscamp.com https://www.lionscamp.com/index.html	TLC offers five sessions for children with disabilities, ages 7-16. Different from many traditional approaches, TLC's program mainstreams children according to their age and gender and not according to their disabilities. This approach allows children not only to experience what it's like to overcome their own obstacles but also the challenges presented to other children who have a different diagnosis.
Camp For All 	6301 Rehburg Road Burton, TX, 77835 979-289-3752 beckert@campforall.org	Camp For All was designed with no barriers for children and adults with special needs to experience the thrill of camping and nature, just like their able-bodied peers. All of the programming is "adaptive," meaning that the activities can be accomplished regardless of the campers' challenges, whether it's mobility, emotional or learning issues.

Houston Area

Name	Contact	About
Camp Buckaroo 	Houston/The Woodlands/Sugar Land/Pearland 713-838-9050, ext. 309 camp@eastersealshouston.org https://eastersealshouston.org/services/camps-and-recreation/camps/	A weeklong day camp for children with disabilities (ages 6-15) and their siblings (ages 6-10) to attend together. Campers are paired 1:1 with a volunteer, who acts as their buddy throughout the week and helps to lead them through activities. Each day of camp has a different theme such as "A Day At The Beach" or "Out of this World" and all music, games, and crafts are geared towards that day's theme.
Camp Smiles 	Burton, Texas 713-838-9050, ext. 309 camp@eastersealshouston.org https://eastersealshouston.org/services/camps-and-recreation/camps/	A week-long overnight camp for children with cerebral palsy or similar neurological disorders, ages 6-15 years old. Each camper is paired 1:1 with a volunteer for the week, and campers participate in awesome adapted activities like zip-lining, horseback riding, fishing, canoeing, archery, swimming, karaoke and so much more.

Camp MOST (Miles of Smiles for Teens)

Houston, Texas
713-838-9050, ext. 309
camp@eastersealshouston.org
https://eastersealshouston.org/services/camps-and-recreation/camps/

A weekend-long retreat for teens and young adults with cerebral palsy or similar neurological disorders between the ages of 14-21. The camp is generally held once a year. It's all about encouraging teens in their transition from childhood to adulthood.