

Cerebral palsy website resources for families

Below is a list of resources where we hope you can find support and services you need to help unlock your child's potential and growth! If you have questions or concerns, please call your healthcare provider.

QR Code	Website	Name and about
	https://canchild.ca 	Can Child Research centre that focuses on improving the lives of children and youth with disabilities and their families. Their research focuses on improving knowledge, conducting clinical and health services research for these families and children.
	https://cerebralspalsy.org.au 	Cerebral Palsy Alliance Global centre of expertise for cerebral palsy services, support, research, technology, innovation and advocacy.
	https://www.yourcpf.org 	Cerebral Palsy Foundation An organization that defines and addresses interventions and insight for families and individuals with Cerebral Palsy. The Cerebral Palsy Foundation is a collaborative network to bring together medical institutions and resources.
	https://www.cerebralspalsyguidance.com 	Cerebral Palsy Guidance Provides assistance and answers to parents of children with cerebral palsy. Written by experts, thoroughly researched and cited.
	https://cprn.org 	Cerebral Palsy Research Network The largest and most comprehensive network of hospitals and community members that work together to improve health outcomes for people with CP.
	www.childdevelopment.ca 	Child Development and Rehabilitation A joint project with Sunny Hill Health Centre for children and the Children and Youth with Special Needs. Sources for other sites on the internet containing child development and rehabilitation resources.

	https://cpfamilynetwork.org 	CPFamily Network (CPFN) Community that provides resources and support to help care for loved ones with cerebral palsy. A place where you can ask questions, connect with families facing similar challenges and gain insights into how to give your child the best care possible.
	https://www.php.com 	Parents Helping Parents A tool to help you with support, resources, and information as you raise your child or adult of any age with any disability or special need.
	https://www.healthychildren.org/English/Pages/default.aspx 	The American Academy of Pediatrics (AAP) Parenting Website The AAP Parenting website provides resources and information for general information related to your child's health. Provides specific guidance for parenting concerns.
	https://ucp.org 	United Cerebral Palsy (UCP) A resource for individuals with cerebral palsy and other disabilities, their families and communities. Goal for a life of inclusion for individuals with disabilities.
	https://worldcpday.org World Cerebral Palsy Day	World Cerebral Palsy Day Global movement to bring people living with cerebral palsy, their families, supporters and organizations together.