

By the numbers 2024

14,000 monthly referral phone calls handled by our communication specialists

4,100 transports performed annually

24/7 staffing at our center by transport dispatch communication specialists

4-time Magnet® designation

6-time CAMTS (Commission on Accreditation Medical Transport Systems) Accreditation since 2009

3 aircraft
• 2 fixed-wing
• 1 helicopter

6 ambulances

1,300 miles our jet can fly before refueling

Outreach education

786 hours of training

134 classes taught

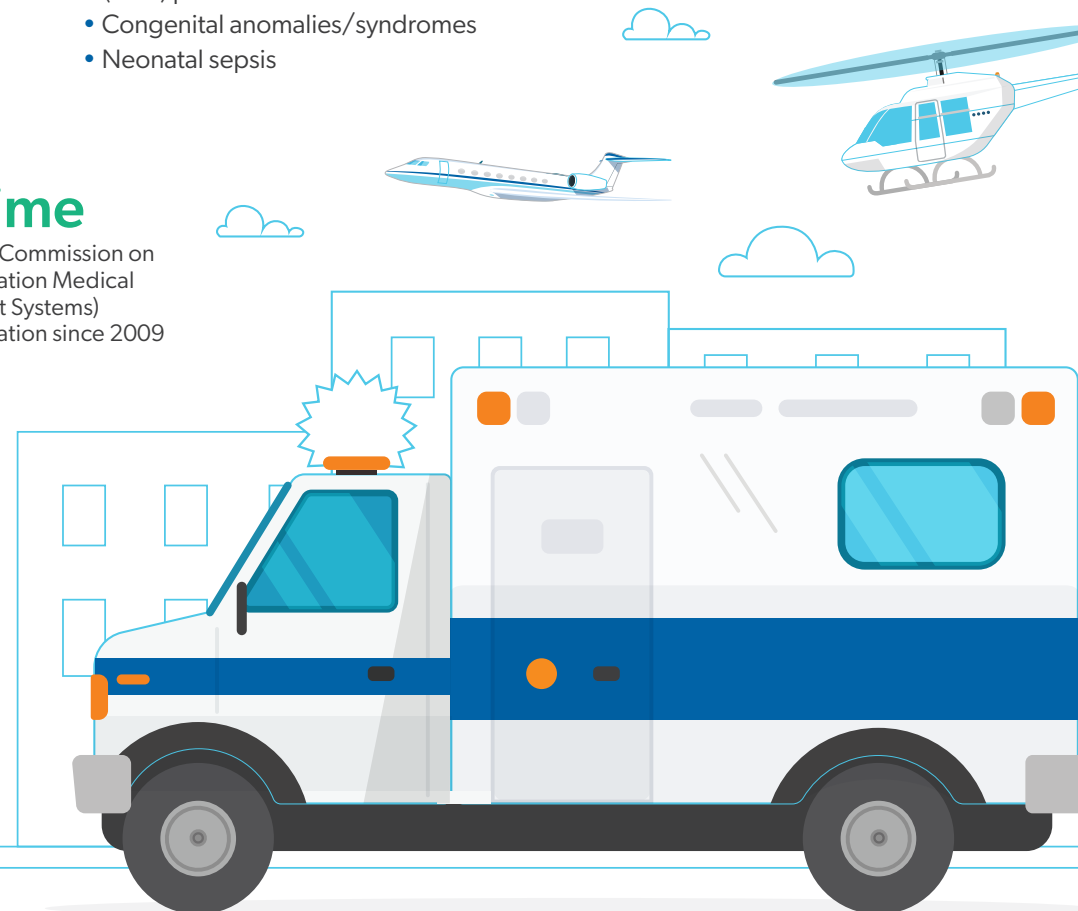

- 84 neonatal classes
- 56 pediatric classes
- 24 of 134 were virtual classes
- 27 pediatric readiness classes

Neonatal class topics

- Sugar, Temperature, Airway, Blood pressure, Lab work and Emotional support (STABLE)
- STABLE-cardiac module
- Neonatal resuscitation program
- Respiratory diagnoses (diseases, treatment modes)
- Neonatal abstinence syndrome
- Hypoxic-Ischemic Encephalopathy (HIE) and cooling
- Delivery room emergencies
- X-ray interpretation
- Intravenous (IV) starts and/or umbilical venous catheter (UVC) placement
- Congenital anomalies/syndromes
- Neonatal sepsis

Pediatric class topics

- Pediatric airway
- Trauma
- Asthma/bronchiolitis
- X-ray interpretation
- Diabetes Ketoacidosis (DKA)
- Respiratory illnesses
- Sepsis recognition and protocols
- Pediatric mock codes
- Summertime emergencies
- Drowning
- Ingestion emergencies
- IV therapy/management

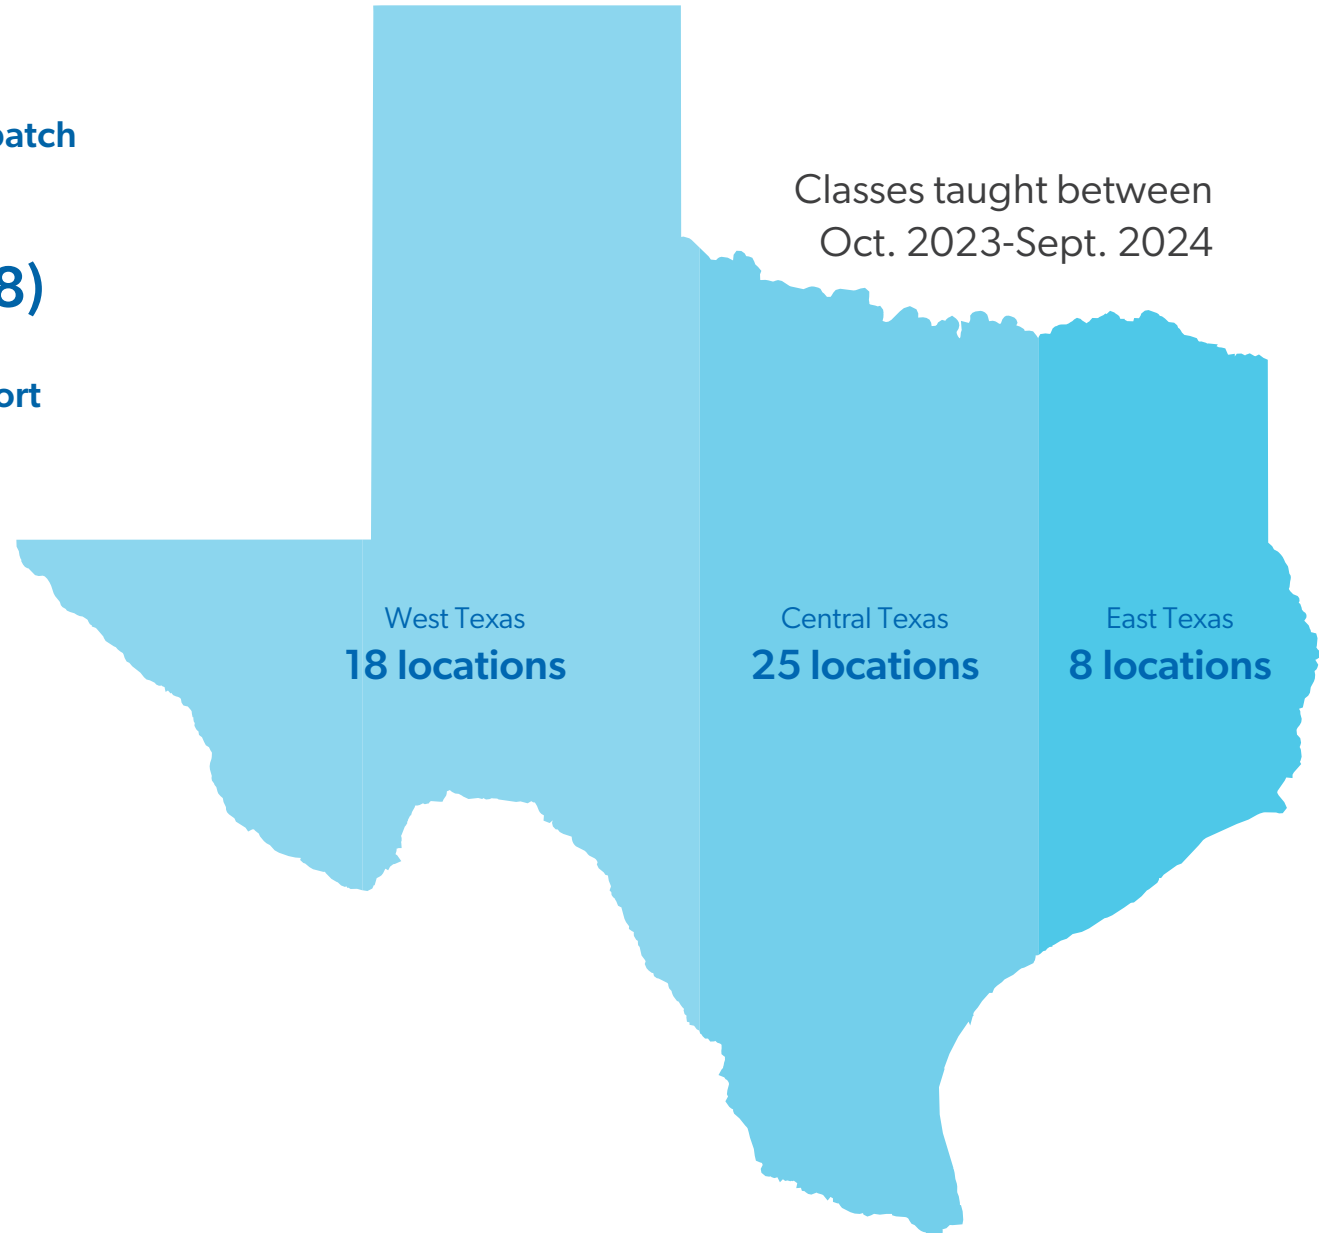

Cook Children's Teddy Bear Transport team brings neonatal and pediatric education to your facility to help ensure the best quality care for your patients.

Teddy Bear Transport dispatch
1-800-KID-HURT
(1-800-543-4878)

cookchildrens.org/transport

Classes taught between
Oct. 2023-Sept. 2024

Schedule a class.